

LINSEY POTTER

Kiki Norman

For Kirsten "Kiki" Norman, good taste is the best business plan. Before she married golf legend Greg Norman in 2010, she was a successful hospitality interior designer, whose clients included many of the world's most glamorous hotel properties, such as The Ritz-Carlton Dubai. Today, she works for her husband's eponymous real estate company and lends her talent to the Norman Design Group, a luxury interior design and architectural firm the couple launched two years ago. When not jet-setting around the world, the Jupiter Islander enjoys playing tennis, spending time with her daughters, and savoring the stunning vistas at their Seven Lakes Ranch in Meeker, Colorado. —Kerry Shorr
